22 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

23 1. This Court has jurisdiction of this case pursuant to § 502(e)(1) of the Employee
 24 Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), Title 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)(1),
 25 which grants the United States District Courts jurisdiction over civil actions brought by a
 26 fiduciary pursuant to § 502(a)(3) of ERISA, Title 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(3), to redress violations
 27 or enforce the terms of ERISA or an employee benefit plan governed by ERISA. Such jurisdiction exists without respect to the amount in controversy or the citizenship of the parties, as provided in § 502(f) of ERISA, Title 29 U.S.C. § 1132(f).
 28

2. This Court also has jurisdiction of this case pursuant to § 301(a) of the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947, as amended (“LMRA”), 29 U.S.C. § 185(a), which grants the United States District Courts original jurisdiction over suits for violation of contracts between an employer and a labor organization in an industry affecting commerce, without respect to the amount in controversy and the citizenship of the parties.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to § 502(e)(2) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)(2), and § 301(a) of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185(a), in that this is the District in which the Plaintiff Trusts (defined below) are administered, the signatory union maintains union offices, and where the contractual obligation is to be paid.

4. To the extent this Complaint sets forth any state law claims, this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over those claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

PARTIES

5. Plaintiffs are express trusts created pursuant to written declarations of trust (hereinafter “Trust Agreements”) between the International Union of Operating Engineers, Local Union No. 12, (hereinafter “Local 12”) and various employer associations in the construction industry in Southern California and Southern Nevada. The Trusts were created and now exist pursuant to § 302(c) of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947, as amended 29 U.S.C. § 186(c).

6. At all times material herein, Local 12 has been a labor organization representing employees in the building and construction industry in Southern California and Southern Nevada, and a labor organization representing employees in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of § 301(a) of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947, as amended 29 U.S.C. § 185(a).

7. Plaintiffs, as trustees of the Trusts, are “fiduciar[ies]” with respect to the Trusts as defined in § 3(21)(A) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21)(A).

13 EXECUTION OF BARGAINING AGREEMENTS AND STATUS OF PARTIES

14 39. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs 15 as though fully set forth herein.

16 40. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all times relevant
17 herein, there was in effect a collective bargaining agreement between Local 12 and non-parties
18 Jen Holdings, Inc. d/b/a Quinn Concrete Pumping, Inc., also known as Mike Quinn Concrete
19 Pumping (collectively "Quinn"), dated July 1, 2007 (hereinafter referred to as the "Master Labor 20 Agreement"). Quinn recognized Local 12 as the authorized representative of its employees and 21 agreed to be bound by the terms of the Master Labor Agreement.

22 41. Section 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §1145, provides "[e]very employer who is 23 obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan under the terms of the plan or under the 24 terms of a collectively bargained agreement shall, to the extent not inconsistent with law, make
25 such contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plan or such agreement."

26 42. Quinn is an "employer" as defined and used in §3(5) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C.
27 §1002(5), and is "obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan" within the meaning
28 and use of Section 515 of ERISA, as codified at 29 U.S.C. § 1145.

43. Both the Master Labor Agreement and 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2) provide for the payment of liquidated damages caused by the failure to pay fringe benefit contributions in a timely manner, in a sum equal to ten percent (10%) of the total amount owed to the Trusts, $25.00 per month, or interest on the unpaid fringe benefit contributions at the rates established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 6621 from their respective due dates, whichever is greater.

44. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2), the Trusts are entitled to interest, at the rates established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 6621, on all unpaid contributions from the dates the sums were originally due to the Trusts to the date of judgment.

45. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that all conditions, covenants and promises required to be performed as conditions precedent for Quinn's performance under the Master Labor Agreement and related Trust Agreements have been properly performed by Plaintiffs.

46. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Quinn failed to pay to the Trusts certain amounts of fringe benefit contributions and damages as outlined below and as will be established by proof at the trial herein.

47. Quinn was given written notice of its non-performance and a demand to perform. Quinn has failed and refused to cure the breach of its obligations to the Trusts.

48. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that there is no legal excuse for Quinn's breach of the Master Labor Agreement, and related Trust Agreements.
